

Loving the Divine Mother - Part 4

In the name of the ever-changing, ever-self-transcending Holy Spirit, I call to the Maha Chohan and my I Will Be Presence, to help me truly see the nature of LIFE and Death. Help me truly experience, how my struggles with life, are caused by my own resistance to the appearances created by duality. Help me finally understand what it takes to be free, so that I have the foundation for choosing LIFE.

I call for this invocation to be multiplied by the entire Ascended Host, and then extended as an opportunity to all people on Earth. In accordance with the vision of Christ, I call for the resolution of the following conditions:

[Mention specific conditions.]

God is Alpha and Omega

God is Father, God is Mother,
through the Son, one with each other.

Oh separation is the lie,
the ego is the unseen tie.
Conditions are the subtle tools to trap the unsuspecting fools.

All ownership a prison wall,
and thus we rise to heed the call.
Transcendence is the Master Key, becoming MORE is liberty.

Surrender is abundant life,
surrender overcomes all strife.
We plunge ourselves into the stream, fulfilling Heaven's highest dream.

Christ vision keeps us on our course, remembering our common Source.
In balance we will always grow, remaining in the Sacred Flow.

We see the ONE beyond all form,
as oneness is the only norm.
Residing in the Sacred Space, enveloped in Eternal Grace.

God is Father, God is Mother,
we see God in each other.

SECTION 1

1. How humbling it is to consider the force, that strung the Pleiades and billions of galaxies, dancing together as in one great ballet.

Refrain

O Holy Spirit, now I see,
transcendence is
the master key.

O Holy Spirit, I set free,
my present sense
of identity.

O Holy Spirit, I AM free,
to flow with you
in Infinity.

2. How humbling it is to consider the cosmic force, that projected forth space itself, and thus created a spherical womb, in which a universe could be born.

Repeat Refrain

3. Yet now consider the ultimate force of all creation, namely the force of free will, the combined will of all self-aware beings, existing in this and all other worlds.

Repeat Refrain

4. For it is only the separate mind – blinded by the illusion of anti-christ – that fails to see the reality of free will. Only a separate mind can believe, that it can exercise its own will, independently of all other self-aware beings with free will.

Repeat Refrain

5. Only a separate mind can think, that it is somehow superior, and thus its will should be in a special category, compared to the will of others.

O Holy Spirit, now I see,
transcendence is
the master key.

O Holy Spirit, I set free,
my present sense
of identity.

O Holy Spirit, I AM free,
to flow with you
in Infinity.

6. What folly to think your will can negate the will of others; what folly to think that God favors you above other extensions of itself.

Repeat Refrain

7. Only the separate mind can fail to see, that while you can indeed do whatever you want, you have a choice only, because different options produce different consequences.

Repeat Refrain

8. Every choice produces a consequence. What folly to think, that one can make a choice without experiencing the consequence.

Repeat Refrain

SECTION 2

1. If there were no consequences, then no choice could be made. Only the folly of the separate self could desire to make choices, without experiencing the consequences.

Repeat Refrain

2. The very purpose of life is growth. One grows by making choices, experiencing the consequences, and then adjusting one's state of consciousness accordingly.

Repeat Refrain

3. Yet many are trapped in the endless cycle of evaluating consequences, based on the dualistic value judgment of right and wrong, good and evil, pleasant and unpleasant. Many are trapped in striving to make choices, that are always pleasant for the separate self.

Repeat Refrain

4. Many think that if they always reap only pleasant consequences, then the separate self has been perfected, and it will now be granted immortality, as the ultimate reward.

Repeat Refrain

5. What folly to think, that the separate self could ever be allowed into the Kingdom of God. For the Kingdom of God is a state of consciousness, in which all self-aware beings realize the one, underlying truth: all life is ONE.

Repeat Refrain

6. The separate self can never recognize this truth, for if it did, it could not remain separate. Thus, the salvation of the separate self is an impossible quest.

Repeat Refrain

7. Wise are those who realize, that the key to immortality is NOT to perfect the separate self, so that it always makes "right" choices.

Repeat Refrain

8. Wise are those who recognize, that there is a higher way to evaluate one's choices. The higher way is to recognize, that one has two basic types of choices: LIFE choices and Death choices.

Repeat Refrain

SECTION 3

1. Death choices are choices made, while seeing yourself as a separate self. You fail to see the underlying oneness of all life. You do not consider, what consequences a choice has for others or for the whole.

O Holy Spirit, now I see,
transcendence is
the master key.

O Holy Spirit, I set free,
my present sense
of identity.

O Holy Spirit, I AM free,
to flow with you
in Infinity.

2. Thus, despite the illusions created by duality, no such choice will ever be right, from the perspective of the Christ mind. For such choices will always raise up one part of life, while putting down another.

Repeat Refrain

3. The alternative is to always make one choice, namely to be the open door for the I Will Be Presence, to express itself through you.

Repeat Refrain

4. The Presence sees the underlying reality that all life is ONE. Thus, it will always make choices that raise the whole, never putting down any other form of life.

Repeat Refrain

5. Choosing to be the open door, is recognizing that you are not the doer. The Presence is the doer, and you are a witness, neutrally experiencing life on Earth, without judging it based on any standard.

Repeat Refrain

6. As long as you are in the zone of neutrality, of inner silence, you are allowing the Presence to work through you.

Repeat Refrain

7. Yet in order to reach this inner silence, one must still the discordant and insistent voices of the outer mind, the mass consciousness and the forces of anti-christ.

Repeat Refrain

8. For they will insist, that you must indeed evaluate all choices and their consequences, according to their dualistic standard. You must win the epic battle, you must solve the problems created by the outer mind, the collective consciousness and the forces of anti-christ.

Repeat Refrain

SECTION 4

1. You will never be free of this treadmill, until you decide to take a stand with Christ and say: "Get thee behind me Satan, for thou favors not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men!"

Repeat Refrain

2. "For I will no longer believe, that I have to do anything or solve any problems. I will put all of my attention on always being the open door, and nothing more."

Repeat Refrain

3. When one sees that the real goal of life is to be the open door, one has stepped onto the Way of Christ. This is the Way of LIFE, for what is life? It is constant self-transcendence.

Repeat Refrain

4. What then is death? It is holding on to something that has form, be it possessions on Earth or a separate self, a fixed identity.

O Holy Spirit, now I see,
transcendence is
the master key.

O Holy Spirit, I set free,
my present sense
of identity.

O Holy Spirit, I AM free,
to flow with you
in Infinity.

5. For when one is holding on, one cannot flow with the most powerful force of the entire world of form, namely the River of Life, the flow of the Holy Spirit.

Repeat Refrain

6. What then is the force of the Holy Spirit? It is the combined force of all self-aware beings, who have chosen to transcend a limited sense of self and become MORE.

Repeat Refrain

7. Since the beginning of the expansion of space, innumerable beings have chosen LIFE. Their combined choices have generated a force, that drives the expansion of the material universe, of space itself.

Repeat Refrain

8. Because the Law of Free Will is the ultimate law, nothing can withstand the combined force, of the choices made by a majority of self-aware beings.

Repeat Refrain

SECTION 5

1. If a majority chooses death, then an entire universe will be allowed to contract. If a majority chooses LIFE, then the universe will be accelerated into the ascension spiral, becoming immortalized as a new sphere in the firmament of God's Being.

Repeat Refrain

2. The material universe is already in the ascension spiral, due to the combined choices of the majority of the self-aware beings, inhabiting the four levels of matter. They have chosen LIFE, they have chosen to be the open doors, for raising the whole into the ascension spiral.

Repeat Refrain

3. You have a right to choose death. Yet whatever you choose, you will experience the consequences of your choice.

Repeat Refrain

4. Only fools demand the right to make choices, without experiencing the consequences. For only fools fail to see, that if there is no consequence, then no choice can be made.

Repeat Refrain

5. Why would any being choose death? Because it has the desire to become as a God, who can know – and define – good and evil.

Repeat Refrain

6. Death choices started in a previous sphere, when certain beings decided, that they wanted to oppose the Creator's plan to raise up all life. Instead, they wanted to raise themselves above others.

Repeat Refrain

7. These beings decided, that they wanted to play the ultimate power game, namely that of striving for the power of God, without attaining the God consciousness, which sees all life as ONE. They wanted the power of a God, while remaining separate beings.

O Holy Spirit, now I see,
transcendence is
the master key.

O Holy Spirit, I set free,
my present sense
of identity.

O Holy Spirit, I AM free,
to flow with you
in Infinity.

8. This is an impossible quest. For truly, as all life is an extension of the Creator's Being, all life is ONE. And thus, no separate being can ever attain greater power than the whole of life. For oneness is the only key to ultimate power.

Repeat Refrain

SECTION 6

1. The Law of Free Will mandates, that any being is allowed to have any experience it desires. And the Divine Mother has vowed to take on the forms, that can accommodate any desire.

Repeat Refrain

2. So the fallen beings were allowed, to use the consciousness of anti-christ, to create the illusion, that they had their own separate world. A world in which they defined the rules—not God.

Repeat Refrain

3. Of course, the Law of Free Will also mandates, that while a being can have any experience it wants, it cannot have it forever.

Repeat Refrain

4. The reason is that while beings can create the illusion, that they are separated from the whole, in reality all life is ONE. Thus, a being with free will cannot forever isolate itself, from the free will of all other beings in its sphere.

Repeat Refrain

5. The consequence is, that when beings desire to set themselves apart from the whole, they can do so only, by going against the force of the Holy Spirit, the force generated by the combined choices of the majority.

Repeat Refrain

6. The consequence of going against the force of the Holy Spirit, is that one must constantly resist the most powerful force in the universe. And this will inevitably turn one's life into a constant struggle.

Repeat Refrain

7. There is only one cause of this struggle, namely that an individual being has chosen, to go against the LIFE choices of the majority.

Repeat Refrain

8. Thus, no being has ever been forced to enter the struggle. It is always the result of a choice made by the individual being, a decision to choose the death of separation over the LIFE of oneness.

Repeat Refrain

SECTION 7

1. Yet it is the nature of duality, that once a being walks through the veil of separation, it will no longer acknowledge, that the constant struggle is simply the consequence of choosing death. And thus, the experience of a struggle is exactly, what this being wanted to have.

Repeat Refrain

2. From the moment the first beings fell into duality, they have failed to take responsibility for their own choices. They have failed to acknowledge, that the experience they are having is the experience they wanted.

O Holy Spirit, now I see,
transcendence is
the master key.

O Holy Spirit, I set free,
my present sense
of identity.

O Holy Spirit, I AM free,
to flow with you
in Infinity.

3. Instead, they have projected the graven image, that it was the Divine Father, who forced them out of his kingdom, and that it is the Divine Mother, who opposes them and turns their lives into a struggle.

Repeat Refrain

4. The wise ones see, that this is exactly the experience these beings wanted to have. They wanted to have ultimate power as separate beings. Thus, they inevitably have to take this power through force, turning their lives into a constant struggle against something.

Repeat Refrain

5. For how can you see yourself as a separate being, unless you also see everything else as separate from your self? And thus, you have created the ultimate power game, where you seek to force everything outside of you, to comply with your will.

Repeat Refrain

6. Thus, the Earth is set up as a reality simulator, that allows beings to have the experience, that they have some ultimate form of power in this world. For they have done what they wanted, yet projected that they were forced to do so. And thus, it is “justifiable” that they oppose what forced them.

Repeat Refrain

7. Of course, the Earth is not isolated from the rest of the universe, and thus it requires great force, to attain the sense of power, and it requires a constant struggle to maintain it.

Repeat Refrain

8. Yet this is exactly what beings trapped in duality want to experience. They may think, that they want to keep a certain state of superiority or power. Yet in reality, they want to experience the struggle for superiority, that is not possible, when one realizes that all life is ONE.

Repeat Refrain

SECTION 8

1. Wise are those who realize, that Planet Earth has entered an accelerated spiral, where playing the ultimate power game requires greater and greater force.

Repeat Refrain

2. Wise are those who decide, that they will no longer support the fallen beings, in their impossible quest, to prove themselves more powerful than God.

Repeat Refrain

3. Wise are those who realize, that the only way to separate oneself from this epic struggle, is to allow the separate sense of self to die, to lose this separate “life” in order to be reborn, as a being who sees nothing external to one’s self.

Repeat Refrain

4. Wise are those who realize, that letting the separate self die, can be achieved only, when one is willing to give up all resistance, all use of force against something external.

O Holy Spirit, now I see,
transcendence is
the master key.

O Holy Spirit, I set free,
my present sense
of identity.

O Holy Spirit, I AM free,
to flow with you
in Infinity.

5. One must follow the call of Christ to not resist evil. Yet one must go beyond and follow the higher call of Christ, namely to not even strive for good. One must stop playing the dualistic game, of resisting evil while seeking to attain relative good through force.

Repeat Refrain

6. Wise are those who realize, that the entire epic struggle is created, as an illusion in the mind of anti-christ. Thus, any attempt to engage in this battle, will set oneself apart from the flow of the Holy Spirit.

Repeat Refrain

7. Only those who turn the other cheek to both evil and good, only those who remain unmoved by any relative appearance, will be free from resistance, will be free to flow with the River of Life, instead of resisting life, by holding on to the appearances of death.

Repeat Refrain

8. Only those who understand the true nature of life and death, will be free to CHOOSE LIFE.

Repeat Refrain

SECTION 9

1. I hereby acknowledge, that the Living Christ has set before me LIFE and Death. Thus, I consciously choose LIFE. I choose to give up the desire to elevate my separate self to some ultimate status.

Repeat Refrain

2. I give up the quest for ultimate power, the desire to define my own rules, according to which I am always right, and according to which even God can be made wrong.

Repeat Refrain

3. I give up the desire to be as a God, who can define what is good and evil, and thus always set myself up as being good, seeing all who oppose me as evil.

Repeat Refrain

4. I choose to recognize, that all life is ONE, and thus what I do to others, I am also doing to my own greater self. Thus, the ultimate way to raise up my self, is to raise up my whole self, by raising up the All.

Repeat Refrain

5. I choose to recognize, that the epic mindset has created the illusion, that something has gone wrong with God's plan, and thus I must correct my own past choices or the choices of others. Instead, I see that the only way to raise up the All is to transcend the past.

Repeat Refrain

6. I see that being trapped in the impossible quest of the fallen beings, the quest to correct God's mistake, is actually crucifying myself. For I am nailed to the cross of perpetual resistance, against what I myself have defined as evil. Thus, I am truly fighting against myself.

Repeat Refrain

7. I let go of the very consciousness of Satan itself, namely that I am somehow bound by past choices. Thus, I acknowledge the truth of Christ, namely that the only way to be free of a choice is to let go of the consciousness that caused me to make that choice. I now joyfully give up the ghost of my separate self, and I allow it to die on the cross.

O Holy Spirit, now I see,
transcendence is
the master key.

O Holy Spirit, I set free,
my present sense
of identity.

O Holy Spirit, I AM free,
to flow with you
in Infinity.

8. I now recognize the truth of Christ, namely that I AM always free to make choices that transcend my past choices. Doing this, is flowing with the Holy Spirit, which is constantly raising up all life through self-transcendence. Thus, I slip into the rushing stream of the Holy Spirit. I AM forever flowing with the ONE stream of the ONE Spirit that IS LIFE.

Repeat Refrain

Decree:

Oh Mother Mary, we release all thoughts and feelings less than peace, releasing now all patterns old,
we leave behind the mortal mold.

River of Life, eternal flow,
we will to live, we will to grow.
We will transcend and be the more,
the joy of life we do adore.

[Repeat this decree 9X, 33X or as many times as you like before completing the invocation.]

OM MANI PADME HUM (9X, 33X or 144X)

Sealing:

Beloved Mother Mary, I now fully see that the Mother has never opposed or punished me. My sense that life in the Mother realm is a struggle, was caused by my own blindness. It was the blindness of the fallen consciousness, that caused me to blame God my Father and God my Mother, for having reaped the consequences of my own choices.

I now see, that my Divine Father and my Divine Mother never blame me for anything. It was the fallen consciousness, that caused me to think I had to blame myself. And because this feeling of being to blame was unbearable, I sought to project the blame outside myself.

I now see, that even blame becomes a power game, where I seek to project ultimate blame upon someone else, so that I appear blameless in comparison. I also see that the only way to be truly blameless, is to let go of the consciousness of blame. I thus choose to forgive God the Father, to forgive God the Mother, to forgive all other people and to forgive myself.

I let go of even the consciousness, that there is something to forgive. For I see that nothing has gone wrong in the great outplaying of free will, as the ultimate key to self-transcendence. I accept that I have made my own choices, and that I have the right to make the choice to rise above my previous choices. And in that acceptance, I can finally let go and fully join the River of Life. Thus, I am free to fully embrace my life in the Mother realm, by being one with the rushing, unstoppable force of life itself, the force of the ONE Spirit, the Holy Spirit. In oneness I am sealed, forevermore, as I AM MORE.
